THE COFFIN TRUST DEAD.

Price of Caskets Will Probably Now Fall.
Cleveland, Ohio, June 19.—The coffin trust is dead. It was one of the first trusts and has flourished for over twenty years. At Detroit yesterday it was dissolved. Secretary and General Manager J. W. Luchinsch, of this city, says the trust had to give up because of losses. He said the coffin trust will now fail.

$4.00 to Philadelphia and Re- $4.00 turn via Pennsylvania Railroad. On account of the National Raffle, tickets will be sold to Philadelphia June 19 to 23, good to return to June 26, at one fare for the round trip.

THE DOINGS OF SOCIETY

Plans of the Cabinet Ladies for the Summer.

Weddings Announced for This Week.
Secretary Gage Leaves for Idaho. Saks' Beautiful Residence.

Society is as dead as Dickens' door nail, though a number of delightful representatives of Washington's social and official world are still here and expect to remain until it pleases Congress to adjourn.

There is no telling when that may come to pass, for the national body is as erratic in its movements as any jack-o'-lantern that ever danced across the Potomac marshes. In the meantime the sequestered within the city have much to be thankful for. There are wide streets, leafy with big breezy trees; there are picturesque drives that end in up-to-date inns masquerading under medieval names and architecture. The daily beats of cars that steam off to beaches where the waves curl in brackets that do not exactly briny water, and to stretches of meadows and woodlands refreshingly pastoral, though they do not possess the scenic importance of those fashion stamped fields and forests that are pre-empted by Fortunate and his daughters and sons.

It is probable that Mr. McKinley will remain until the adjournment, as she does not care to leave without the President, and, of course, is city-bound, except for brief excursions. The Vice President and his family are expected to leave for a vacation here at the Cameron residence, on Lafayette Place, until the recent indisposition of their young son, which may necessitate a change in their summer program. Secretary and Mrs. Sherman love Washington, and ask no sympathy for being obliged to remain in their beautiful marble mansion, on K Street, since they usually delay their summer jaunt until the heart of the season.

Secretary Long will remain at the Capital indefinitely, although it is likely that his wife and daughters will spend a greater part of the summer at their delightful home at "Old Hingham," a few miles south of Boston, on a lovely stretch of land facing the ocean.

A recent guest describes it as a charming experience to sit upon the broad piazza with the gentle breeze and enjoy the brilliant panorama of nature while breathing the health-giving breezes that blow in from the water or nearby forests.

Other officials of more or less magnitude are accepting the inevitable with more or less philosophy, and the one thing to be glad about in the matter is that everything connected with the doings of Congress will be glad when the time comes to go away.

Several weddings of special interest are announced for the coming week.

On Tuesday evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Bacon, the marriage will take place of their daughter, Miss Annie Langston Bacon, and Mr. Philip Henry Richardson Pearson. It will be followed by a reception, from 8:30 to 10. On Wednesday, at the First Baptist Church, Miss Adrienne Eddoff and Mr. Charles E. Shreve, Jr., will be married at 8 p. m. At the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, Miss Florence Caroline Grogg and Mr. Edward Lyman Chapman will be united at the same hour, and at the Epiphany Church, also at 8 o'clock, the marriage of Miss Anna M. Ercite and E. J. Becker will take place.

Many friends from this city will attend the nuptials of Miss Lorena Langdon Barber to Samuel Todd Davis, Jr., which will take place at Ardley Towers, Ardley-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., Tuesday afternoon. On Wednesday evening, Mr. Ezra Doty Parker, a son of Mr. E. S. Parker, president of the National Metropolitan Bank, of this city, will be married to Miss Rebecca Jane Banks, at her home, in Millington, Pa.

One of the last and most beautiful nuptial events of June will be the marriage on the 30th instant of Miss Frieda Le Baron Goldsboro to Mr. William D. Slaughter, of Memphis, Tenn. The ceremony will be solemnized at St. Patrick's Church at 9 o'clock by Rev. Dr. Stafford and will be followed by a nuptial mass.

The maid of honor will be Miss Julia Smoot, a niece of the bride, and the bridesmaid, Mr. Heiskell and Mr. Fauntleroy McGill. The best man will be Mr. Xavier Taitford. The bride is a lineal descendant of historic Puritan stock, being related through her mother to Miles Standish, and on her grandfather's side to the house of John Alden—her name being given in honor of Praxilla, his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Richold have issued cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Ernestine, to Mr. Lee Baumgarten, on Wednesday, June 23.

Ex-Governor H. H. Wells has issued invitations for the marriage of his granddaughter, Helen Millicent Wells, to Mr. Edward of this city. The wedding will take place at the North Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, at 6 o'clock.

On Tuesday a double wedding will take place at the residence of Dr. Appleby, of Georgetown, when Miss Josephine Appleby will marry Mr. Kendrick Hatt and Miss Bessie Appleby will become the wife of Mr. William Franklin Willoughby.

Secretary Gage has settled the question of a permanent city residence, by leasing, furnished, the house, No. 1716 K Street, owned by Mr. Leador Saks, and now occupied by him. The deal was made about two weeks ago, and the Secretary will not take possession until fall, having arranged to spend the summer at Chevy Chase.

The house is a three-story and basement, gable front, of white stone with a handsome flight of stone steps. It stands on a side and a handsome residence, and the other. The interior is of the most modern and elegant style of architecture, with a rotunda and two grand stairways, the entire house being magnificently furnished from basement to roof.

July 1, Dr. and Mrs. Adams, of Dupont Circle, will go to Mountain Lake Park to occupy their cottage for the summer months. Mrs. Adams will remain until about November 1.

On Monday evening Miss Elizabeth M. Chapman and Mr. Charles Hamilton Ford were married by the Rev. Dr. Greene, of Calvary Baptist Church, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Chapman, No. 821 Third Street northwest. The bridesmaids were the Misses Chapman, Duvall, Taylor and Weedon, the maid of honor being Miss Adelaide V. Haynes, of Richmond, Va. The ushers were Dr. James Fairly and Mr. Edward Flanagan.

The bride was daintily attired in cream silk and carried a bouquet of La France roses, while the maid of honor wore white organdie, her flowers being a cluster of sweet peas.

The bride trip will include visits to New York, Niagara Falls, and Boston.

Miss Mary A. Triplett and Mr. Llewellyn B. Ker were quietly married by Rev. Lucien Clark at his home of Miss Jennie L. White, at noon. The bride and groom left at once for Delmar, Del., their future home.

The marriage of Miss Clara Fassett, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Fassett, and Mr. William West Delano, was solemnized at noon Tuesday, in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends, in the New York Avenue Church, Rev. Dr. Ratcliffe officiating, assisted by Rev. Dr. Little.

The bride, dainty in white silk and mulle, and wearing a large white hat, came into the church with her father. She was attended by her sister, Miss Violet Fassett, and Mr. Arthur Hendrickson served the groom as best man. The ushers were Mr. Henry May, Mr. Alan G. Houghtman, Mr. Benjamin White and Mr. Mallum. After a bridal trip, the couple will make Washington their home.

Historic Christ Church, West Washington, was the scene Wednesday evening of one of the most beautiful weddings of the year. The time-honored edifice, made beautiful with palms, marguerites and graceful vines, was brilliant with an assemblage composed of old residential families of Washington and Georgetown, together with many guests from other cities, who were there to witness the marriage of Miss Marion Dorothy Wheatley to Mr. Alphonse Veazey, son of Gen. Veazey, of Vermont.

A full church service added to the impressiveness of the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. A. Rhett Stuart, rector of the church. The maid of honor was Miss Florence Wheatley, and the bridesmaids Miss Rose Nemeth and Miss Ellen Hartley Wheatley. The ushers were Mr. James S. Morrill, of Norfolk, Va.; Mr. Frank W. Blair, Mr. A. A. Fisher, Mr. Richmond F. Bingham and Mr. S. Hartley Wheatley.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wheatley, No. 1314 Thirteenth street, to the bridal party and out-of-town guests, after which Mr. and Mrs. Veazey left for a summer trip North, to return in the fall.

An especially pretty wedding was that of Miss Eleanor La Seer and Mr. James Wilson Kennedy, of Pueblo, Colo., who were married Wednesday evening at St. Andrew's Church, in the presence of a large and brilliant assemblage. The ushers were Mr. Alonzo H. Stewart, Mr. A. B. Reichold, Mr. F. T. F. Johnson, Mr. W. O. Roome, Mr. Frank Butts, and Mr. Lawrence Brainerd, of St. Albans, Vt. Mr. A. B. Cooper was best man, and Miss Harriet La Seer was the maid of honor. The bride was dressed in white corded silk, trimmed with chiffon. Her veil was that worn by her mother, and was caught with a pearl ornament, the gift of the groom. She carried a white paper book instead of the customary bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. La Seer are taking a bridal trip that will include Niagara Falls, and after several weeks spent visiting points of interest North, will proceed to Pueblo, their future home.

St. John's Church Wednesday at noon was filled with the friends of Miss Harriet Barnes Meding and Mr. Eugene Cissell Gott, who were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Wood.

The bride's gown was a pretty combination of green taffeta under white organdie, the lace-trimmed bodice being touched with sprays of orange blossoms that had done service on the wedding gown of her mother. Her large black hat was gracefully adorned with black plumes, and she carried a bouquet of sweet peas tied with satin ribbon. The maid of honor, Miss E. Belle Gott, was prettily dressed in white mulle over yellow silk, with a yellow hat to match. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of white sweet peas.

The ushers were Messrs. George T. Cox, John B. Johnson, W. H. Dempsey, and Charles W. Meding. Mr. H. Freeman Clark served the bride, and Mr. John H. Lane, and Mr. K. Behren, were married in the presence of a number of friends; Rev. Dr. Easton, officiating.

The ushers were Mr. F. H. Judd, Mr. J. W. Bennett, Mr. F. C. Losano, Mr. F. J. Randolph, with Mr. Freeman, D. C. N. G., as best man.

The bride wore a pretty dress of white organdie, over white taffeta, and carried a bouquet of bride buds.

Mr. and Mrs. Behren left after the ceremony for a bridal trip North, and upon their return will reside at No. 515 Third Street northwest.

Miss Ida V. Madagan and Mr. Stewart J. Shea were married Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at St. Paul's Catholic Church in the presence of a large number of friends.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Foley, assisted by Rev. Father Hanna and Rev. Father Mackin. Archbishop Goss was present at the sanctuary and at the conclusion of the service pronounced the benediction.

The bride was attended by Miss Mae Reilly in a velvet gown of pink organdie over silk, and the best man was Mr. A. J. Sheridan.

After a short tour South Mr. and Mrs. Shea will be at home at No. 1518 T Street.

A pretty home wedding Wednesday night was that of Miss Jennie L. White, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. White, of No. 805 L Street, to Mr. William H. Krug, of Cleveland, Ohio. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Elliot, rector of Ascension Church, and there were neither ushers nor maids. The bride was prettily attired in corse, etamine over corse taffeta and carried a bouquet of white roses. After a reception, which was attended by a large number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Krug, they left on a bridal trip that will include visits to the groom's relatives in Cleveland and relatives and friends of the bride in Pennsylvania.

Miss Anna F. McCabe and Mr. Edwin A. Hellig were married Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at St. Joseph's Church, Rev. Father Dillon officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Hellig left almost immediately for a trip North, and upon their return will be at home after July 8 at No. 503 First Street northeast.

Mrs. Jennie M. Pyne, of Caro, Mich., and Mr. Thomas R. Taylor, of the Postoffice Department, were married Thursday at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. H. Thomas, of No. 1625 B Street, by the Rev. Byron Sunderland, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, after which the bride and groom left for Atlantic City. Upon their return they will reside at No. 2326 L Street.

On Thursday evening last a very pretty wedding ceremony was performed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Worch, the contracting parties being their eldest daughter, Henrietta E., and John G. Flynn, of this city. The parlor was filled with relatives and friends of the couple, and a number of handsome and useful presents were received. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Mr. Metzger, and the attendants were Miss Clara Worch and Mr. A. Emil Holst. Among the out-of-town relatives present was Mr. Carl Worch, of Jackson, Mich., a cousin of the bride.

Immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Flynn left for their future home, No. 2115 Pennsylvania Avenue, where they will be pleased to see their friends.

Among the new members attracting popular attention in the House of Representatives is Hon. Joseph M. E. Tamm, of the New York district, who, with his charming wife, have made many friends here during the session. Mrs. E. Tamm divides her time between Mr. E. Tamm and her little boy, Donald, at their home in Riverhead, L. I.

The young knight of the silver spoon is Mrs. K. Lasser, who remains at the family residence, to which Mrs. E. Tamm has made frequent trips throughout the season. She is making him a brief visit now.

Mrs. Richard Clarke has decided to spend the summer in New England, instead of at Staunton, Va., as she had originally planned.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Schefer and family of New York, are located at the Shoreham.

Miss Kent, principal of the Webster School, leaves next week to spend her vacation in her home in Phoenix, R. I.

Miss Theodore North, of Anacostia, who has been visiting in New York and Philadelphia for several weeks, returned yesterday morning.

Miss Lula T. Nau was given a birthday party at her home Monday evening, which proved a pleasant affair. During the evening musical selections were contributed by Misses Ida Brachler, and Emma Miller and others, and dancing was also enjoyed.

The parlors and dining-room were tastefully decorated with palms and flowers, and dainty refreshments were served. Among those present were Misses A. Reich, I. Grigory, A. Lochbecher, E. Miller, L. Kohn, L. and E. Kohn, the groom's bridesmaids, and Messrs. F. Stein, M. Hartung, I. Ernst and Edgar Gue, J. Yeabower, J. Reich, H. and J. Stein and W. Reich.

Mrs. Robert Marry and son, of Baltimore, are visiting friends in Washington.

Mrs. H. A. Gillewain and daughter, Corinne, left last night for a three months' visit at Astoria, Pa.

The annual whist congress of the American Whist League takes place this summer in July, at Put-in-Bay, on which occasion a very large attendance of clubs and members of the league is confidently looked for.

The fact that Secretary Gage has rented a villa for the summer at Chevy Chase has troubled some prominent journalists' memory back to Grant's Administration, when Benjamin H. Bristol was looking at a handsome Washington residence. "What is the rent?" he asked of the agent. "Seven thousand dollars per year," replied the latter. Then the Secretary gazed away into space with a pensive mood. "What are you thinking of?" inquired the agent. "Why," replied the Secretary with some hesitation, "I was wondering what to do with the other thousand dollars."

Major and Mrs. C. I. Wilson are visiting their son at Omaha.

Mrs. Wayne W. Cordell and daughter, May, left during the week for Scott county, Tenn., where they will spend the summer with relatives and friends on the Cumberland Plateau.

The Clemen Social Club met last evening at the residence of Miss B. Pearson, No. 1334 Sixth Street northwest. Under the head of new business the members decided to give a box and necktie social on Thursday evening next, and an outing on July 5. After remarks by the president and secretary refreshments were served by the hostess, and the club adjourned to meet next Monday, at No. 1700 Fourth Street northwest.

One of the most popular children in the Congressional circle is the little son of Hon. Champ Clark. This politician in embryo voices his father's views and secondly them with such original ones of his own that he is always sure of a quorum whenever his childish father takes a political flight. He is a manly and altogether lovable lad and, like Rah, has many friends.

Cadet James Justice, of the United States Military Academy, is visiting here in a fortnight. He is stopping at the residence of his mother, No. 905 New York Avenue northwest.

Miss Virginia Geddes was hostess at an enjoyable party given at her residence, No. 1112 New York Avenue, Thursday night. The parlor was exquisitely decorated with palms and roses, while the supper table was dressed in white organdie, so arranged as to form a heart, which contained in the center a cake, ornamented with her name and the initials of each guest.

Dancing and games were enjoyed until a late hour, when supper was served. She will leave the city today, and expects to be gone all summer, visiting places in Maryland.

The Capitol Hill Glee Club closed their series of concerts for the season Friday night, at the residence of Miss Eugenia Ellis, of Fifth Street southeast.

The parlor was prettily decorated with palms and flowers, the club colors being carried out in earthenware of pink and cream, together with pink sweet peas and red roses, the contrasting shades of the same color being blended artistically with ashy blue and white. The program rendered by the club members included a string quartet by Messrs. Johnson, Hall, Donaldson and Green; vocal solo, by Miss Isabel Thynon; baritone solo, Mr. J. B. Ferguson; duet, piano and violin, Misses Ella and Kate Hamilton; vocal quartet, Misses Jennings, and Misses, and Messrs. Hall and Peterson, and a number of impromptu pieces and choruses rendered by members who took no individual part in the exercises.

The latter portion of the evening was given over to games and dancing, and a substantial collation was served.

Among those present were Messrs. Frances Meloney, Hattie Roache, Kate Jensen, Nellie and Mamie Allen, Julia Pettie, Marie Wilkerson, and Messrs. James Dalton, Anthony Roache, John McElfresh, Howard Allen and Ethan and Harry Wall.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Cassel left yesterday for New York to attend the wedding of Miss Barber at "Ardley Towers," Ardley-on-the-Hudson.

To Housekeepers:
There is nothing which interests all intelligent housekeepers as cooking and how to do it with the least friction, the least waste of fuel, and the least expenditure of all supplies, and the utmost economy of heating of the house at breakfast time, again at dinner, and if that was not enough, a heating of the already hot rooms once more for supper. All this has a tendency to keep the good lady of the house in an ill humor, and sometimes the husband in "hot water." Any device which would sweep the tediousness of the wife would be appreciated by the husband. Such a device is now on exhibition at 439 Seventh Street northwest—it is the Vapor Stove. The stove is made of sheet metal, has no ashes, has no wicks to get out of order like the oil stove, does not smoke or smell like any of them. The stoves are made in several sizes, so that they are suitable for the largest, as well as the smallest family. The stove can be placed in any room in the house, and the lady can cook her dinner in a silk dress, without having her dress soiled, or any odor, or soot, or smoke in the room. It is economical in fuel and time—in one minute from the time you light the stove, it is ready to broil your steak, boil your eggs, or bake your biscuits. It is economical as well—a meal for an ordinary-sized family (four or five) can be cooked for one cent, say three cents a day, or a dollar a month. If you had wood given to you, it would cost you but a few cents more than the cost of the stove. It is much less, and the heat from the burners greater than any other form of stove. There are thousands of these stoves in operation, and are giving perfect satisfaction, as one lady remarked: "Next to her husband, she loved her Vapor Stove," and strange to say this woman loved her husband very much. From a careful estimate made of the cost of these stoves, from nine to ten thousand of these devices will be sold in the city of Baltimore during the present year, and nearly half that number in Washington—their use is so easy to handle that even a child can safely use them. They need much less care than a common wood or coal stove, and if properly handled no more dangerous—in fact, not so much so. These stoves are now on exhibition at 439 Seventh Street northwest, and the people interested in these labor-saving devices are cordially invited to be present. A competent cook in attendance, so you may see as well as taste what may be done on these stoves, and it has been truly said that the two greatest blessings woman has had conferred upon her have been the Vapor Stove and the sewing machine. We would invite all our readers to see these wonderful Vapor Stoves, especially the ladies.

'27 Columbia Bicycle Free.

Every lady who subscribes to the American Queen at 25c per annum before June 30 will be given a chance to win a superb '27 Columbia Bicycle (standard of the world), valued at $100.

THE AMERICAN QUEEN is a magnificent ladies' home journal, published monthly by the Bon Marche, including in its twenty interesting pages the dearest phases of a woman's life. One especially interesting feature is the department devoted to suggestions which will help you to make money; practical hints that may enable you to make a splendid income without leaving home. This department alone is worth a hundred times the price of the magazine to any woman. The other literary features of the Queen are up to the highest possible standard.

The June issue of THE AMERICAN QUEEN, now being distributed, is as bright and breezy as a summer day. The cover, a charming color illustration in rose red and brown, shows a girl canoeing through the sea, and is a picture worth preserving. "Champion Sportswomen," a lavishly illustrated article, gives an interesting account of the women foremost in athletics at the day, the leading golfers, swimmers and mountaineers, as well as those who ride, drive, skate and hunt with as much grace as the men. The second installment of the serial story, "Hildegard von Etten," grows in interest and makes the reader eager for the concluding chapters, which will appear in July. The "Paris Fashions" are chiefly devoted to traveling and out-of-door recreation costumes, each model being a triumph in its way and sure to please the average woman. Among current articles of special interest, "Village Curts," "A Yankee Girl" and a paper on the benefits of the colored hair from "The Queen's Cooking School" through "White Aprons" and "The Mirror of Venus."

THE AMERICAN QUEEN is better worth $1 per year than most other magazines sold at that price—but we shall take all subscriptions entered before June 30 at the reduced price of 25c per annum—and allow every subscriber to enter the contest for the Columbia Bicycle. The Bicycle will be awarded to the lady subscriber of THE Queen who sends in the best menu for a family of five or six persons, for a sum not to exceed $10. You are not required to furnish a fancy menu, but a good, common-sense, practical menu for a housekeeper can use for her table. Bear in mind that your subscription and menu must be in before June 30, if you wish to win the Bicycle. Why not subscribe Monday?
